INSTRUCTIONS TO REVIEWERS

Please send your review on the form enclosed via e-mail or in two typewritten copies. Sign the first copy only. If the form space is not sufficient, separate sheets can be added. In your review please note the following:

1. Does the paper deal with physics of the atmosphere, the sea or the Earth's interior?
2. Does the title correspond to the contents?
3. Is the abstract adequate?
4. Does the paper contain material which is not new or interesting? Does it have to be shortened or supplemented?
5. Are the author's ideas clear and the conclusions logical?
6. Does the author use standard and understandable terminology?
7. Are the mistakes in equations, presentation and statistical data processing? If so, which?
8. Are the figures and tables clearly presented?
9. Is the sufficient credit given to previous work?
10. Is the English correct? Does it need improvement?
11. If your recommendation is "reconsider after extensive revision" will you be willing to review the paper again?
